Catholic Social Teaching Corner

Third Sunday of Advent

You might notice that John does not use Jesus' name in this Gospel, but only refers to him as "one whom you do not recognize." Although they knew the text of Isaiah the Pharisees were not really prepared to find the promised Messiah among the broken-hearted, the lonely, those held in captivity or those lacking justice and peace. Do we know where to look for Jesus? Will we recognize him among those most ignored and forgotten in our world?

Tercer Domingo de Adviento

Puede que usted note que Juan no usa el nombre de Jesús en el Evangelio, sino que solo se refiere a Él como "el que ustedes no reconocen". A pesar de que conocían el texto de Isaías, los Fariseos no estaban realmente preparados para encontrar al Mesías prometido entre los rotos de corazón, los solitarios, los cautivos o aquellos que no tenían justicia y paz ¿Sabemos nosotros dónde buscar a Jesús? ¿Lo reconoceremos entre aquellos los más ignorados y olvidados en el mundo?

Life Issues & Events

TEXAS CATHOLIC PRO-LIFE DAY 2018 will take place on Saturday, January 27, in Austin. ANSWERING THE CALL FOR ROOM AT THE INN

For Christians around the world, Advent means anticipation. Advent reminds us of the Holy Family's journey to Bethlehem, and what Pope Francis says is our journey to "the horizon of hope." But for the millions of refugees and displaced people around the world, it can be difficult to find the hope in their journey. They need our help along the way. It's really in our DNA as Catholics to serve these members in very troubled communities. Every day, families leave their homes in places like Syria, Iraq and Afghanistan, driven by conflict, violence or poverty, and desperately seeking safety. Since 2014, more than 15,000 refugees and asylum seekers drowned in the Mediterranean Sea attempting to reach European shores. One young Syrian woman, Zaynab, reached the shores of Greece at 9 months pregnant. Exhausted, and with the early signs of labor, she was greeted by staff of Caritas Macedonia. She soon gave birth to a healthy baby girl. They found shelter in a Catholic Relief Services supported transit camp. The response to the refugee crisis, carried out by a compassionate and strong network of Catholic organizations, exemplifies Pope Francis' reminder of our moral obligation to increase assistance to vulnerable people, old and young, who suddenly find themselves without a home or a room.

Faith Formation

The catechetical mission of St. John's Faith Formation Program is to attract, engage and inspire young people to deepen their relationship with Jesus Christ.

Classes have been dismissed for the Christmas holidays and will resume on Wednesday, January 10.

Catholic Youth Ministry

Christmas Decorating: CYM will be decorating St. John Church on Sunday, December 24, after the 10:00 a.m. Mass. All high school students are asked to participate as we set up the mangers and decorate the church for Christmas. Parents are welcome to join; your help will be appreciated.

Diocesan Catholic Youth Conference will be the weekend of February 2-4 at the Waco Convention Center. For 59 years, youth and chaperones of our diocese have gathered annually for Austin DCYC. In 2018, the conference leaders are excited to celebrate 60 years of faith and vitality that young people bring to the Diocese of Austin.
